

PROJECT 4-2

BULBS THAT PULL THEMSELVES DOWN INTO THE SOIL

PROBLEM

Some plants have contractile roots that pull the bulb down into the soil. Oxalis (sour sob) does this, but the published work is on American species and it would be of interest to know how the local weed species (Oxalis pes caprae) behaves before designing eradication programmes.

INFORMATION

1.